MISSING MEDICAL STUDENT.

At 5.25 p.m. 7-10-40, Gordon Road Station notified this station that at 11 a.m. 7-10-40, a private motor car, bearing the licence number 1123, had been seen on Penang Road, facing east, and 200 yards west of Kiaochow Road. It had remained at this place throughout the day, and appeared to have been abandoned.

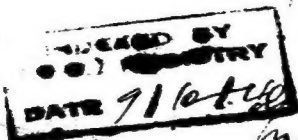

Private motor car licence No. 1123 was registered in the name of Loh Siu Wang (梁秀王), 362/36 Great Western Road, and Gordon Road Station requested that an attempt be made to locate the owner.

A visit was paid to 362/36 Great Western Road, and from Mr. Loh Tsung Tang (梁正堂) contractor, it was learned that the motor car was the property of his son Loh Siu Wang, medical student.

Mr. Loh said his son had left home as usual for college at 8 a.m. 7-10-40, driving his own car, but had failed to return home for lunch. He always came home for lunch.

The student's college was at once communicated with, and it was learned that he had failed to put in an appearance on 7-10-40.

The father can give no reason for the disappearance of his son, and says he has no cause whatsoever to visit the Penang Road vicinity.

The motor car was examined for finger prints. None were found.

School books and papers; driving permit No. 322-L in the name of Loh Siu Wang, and a crumpled up white surgeon's overall, were found on the front seat of the car.

The car keys were missing.

The description of the missing student is
